+Call to Worship (Written by a student from St. Martin Upper Elementary School, Ocean Springs, Miss.)

The gulf is warm, a tropical storm has begun to form. The storm gets stronger, as it sits in the gulf longer and longer.

It's coming towards the shore, people are leaving, more and more.

The wind is beginning to blow, time is starting to slow.

Mixed with the wind, is the pounding rain.

As people's lives, go down the drain.

All that is left, is brick and wood. People would change it, if they could.

No one is left, no one at all. All we can do is watch, as people's lives collapse and fall.

Volunteers bring down supplies, but then they see a big surprise.

They see how many tears were shed, as disturbing thoughts went through their heads.

You'll never know when, the next hurricane will come.

And all its takes, is one, just one.

Pastoral Prayer Peg Jones

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

+Benediction

Go into the world in peace. Be of good courage; hold fast to what is good; render to no one evil for evil; strengthen the faint-hearted; support the weak; help the afflicted; honor all people. Love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit until we meet again.

+Postlude
